Factory May Move Into Local Plant

The fine reputation of the concern has been amply testified to by road constructionists and firms of high standing in California. The only obstacle in the path of the company's location here was pointed out here yesterday when the chief engineer and general manager toured the Pacific Perforating plant accompanied by members of the chamber. It was noted that the space between the machinery lines was slightly smaller than the width of the production line that would be established as the equipment is being built. This could be remedied, local men declared, by moving the present machinery back toward the sides of the building.

Officials of the Morton Company are favorably impressed with the Torrance location because of the easy accessibility to the Columbia steel plant for their steel and iron supplies. They said yesterday that this point was very important to the firm and that they would give the chamber an early decision.

OLD MINER'S PAN FOUND

CRATER LAKE, Ore.—A just-aten gold mining pan found here is believed to have belonged to John W. Hillman, who discovered the lake in 1853. The pan was found by Fred Patton, workman, near Hillman's old camp near Watchman peak. Hillman had been in search of the fabled Lost Cabin gold mine when he discovered the lake.

WHAT NO ICE CREAM?

PARADISE—At least one thief isn't bothered with hot weather. He broke into a local store, stole 900 pounds of ice, several watermelons and a crate of cantaloupes.

BOULDER BOOMING

LAS VEGAS, Nev.—A total of 295 formal applications for business permits in Boulder City were filed up to the date of closing, Louis Crumrin, government director of the city, revealed. Crumrin expressed himself as pleased with the quality of applicants.

State's Chain of Parks Valued at Twelve Million Dollars Now

SACRAMENTO—Not many years ago California was bounded on the north and south by Oregon and Mexico and on the east and west by barbed wire and "no trespassing" signs. Now, however, this situation is rapidly being corrected, as the state builds up its $12,000,000 chain of state parks—one of the greatest of its kind in America.

Other scenic beauty spots are being acquired by the state through the $6,000,000 bond issue wisely adopted by the voters in 1930. This sum is matched dollar for dollar by private contributions.

With the addition of wooded areas in the state system, a new responsibility is placed upon the state to protect such parks from fire. Already a large area, comprising the national forests, is under protection of Uncle Sam.

As the state parks increase, and giant redwoods, big trees and other forested areas come under state protection, the problem of fire prevention assumes new importance. In Los Angeles county, a total of 757,000 acres of forest land is under federal protection and 240,000 acres under protection of the state.

Danger to Watersheds.
 State Forester M. E. Pratt recently pointed out that no statewide program of water development would be completed unless provision were made for a corresponding program of fire prevention.

Forests and brush acts as a sort of sponge in the watersheds of the state, storing up the water

Murray Beauty Shop To Re-Open Monday With New Operator

J. V. Murray, proprietor of the Murray Barber and Beauty Shop, 2205 Torrance (Redondo) boulevard, announces that he has completed arrangements with Miss Fannie Goode for the re-opening of the beauty shop on Monday, August 17. Miss Goode is an experienced beauty specialist and for the past eight years has been one of the owners of the Lorraine Beauty Shop in Redondo Beach.

Mr. Murray stated that his beauty shop is now equipped to do any type of permanent waving that may be desired, including the much wanted combination croquignole (or spiral) wave with ringlet ends. This beautiful combination of deep marcel waves close to the head with attractive ringlet ends is made possible by the installation of an improved Nestle circuitine machine, which is now part of the modern equipment of the Murray shop. Appointments may be made by telephoning Torrance 220-J.

15 TROUT COST HIM $85
 By the United Press

LEBANON, Mo.—Fishing was good, but costly for J. H. Richa. He caught 15 large trout, but was fined $85. He was fishing in the state hatchery.

OLD SPRING TRAP FOUND
 By the United Press

BLUESTONE, W. Va.—While excavating in a spring near here, a workman dug up a double spring trap that probably was set half a century ago at least. One of the springs had rusted apart.

Evicted, Sleeps In Street
